

EUROPE IN CRISIS?

INTERDISCIPLINARY LECTURE SERIES

TUESDAYS 4-6 P.M., VG 4.101

24.10.2017

Dimitri Almeida

Department of Romance Studies:

Euroscepticism in Crisis?

The Populist Radical Right and the EU

07.11.2017

Julian Plottka

Institute for European Politics (Berlin):

The Commission's White Book Process:

Making Europe Crisis Proof?

14.11.2017

Simon Fink

Department for Political Science:

When Do Crises of the EU Spur Reforms?

21.11.2017

Lavinia Marin and Benedikte Custers

Education Culture and Society (Leuven);

Faculty of Psychology and

Educational Sciences (Porto):

Higher Education in European Discourse.

A Conversation That Never Took Place

28.11.2017

H. Pinar Senoguz

Institute for Cultural Anthropology /

European Ethnology:

Hospitality Discourse and Syrian Refugees

in Turkey: Uniting or Dividing?

05.12.2017

Flora Ferati-Sachsenmaier

Institute of Sociology:

The Belgrade-Pristina Dialogue:

A Litmus Test for the EU Diplomacy

12.12.2017

Elizabeth Goering

Department of Communication Studies

(Indianapolis):

De/Construction Zone Europe:

American Media Representations of

Europe in Crisis

19.12.2017

Martin Tamcke

Department of Church History:

How Do We Want to Live?

09.01.2018

Lars Klein

EMJMD Euroculture:

Europe - Anatomy of a Crisis

16.01.2018

Jesse van Amelsvoort

Centre for International Relations

(Groningen):

Contemporary Europe is Postcolonial:

Transitions, Representations and Connections

23.01.2018

Moritz Ege and Alexander Gallas

Institute for Cultural Anthropology /

European Ethnology;

Department of Political Science (Kassel):

What is 'conjunctural analysis' and what are its uses?

Revisiting a transdisciplinary program

in a new time of crisis

www.uni-goettingen.de/euroculture

Contacts: Prof. Dr. Simon Fink / Dr. Lars Klein
Platz der Göttinger Sieben 3 ·
37073 Göttingen · Telephone: 0551 3927822
eurocult@uni-goettingen.de