

Directions Week of Methods Conference Center at the Historical Observatory

Conference Center at the Historical Observatory, Geismar Landstraße 11, 37083
Göttingen

Seminar rooms and GGG's offices = yellow modern building behind the Historical Observatory

Directions:

Please follow the road out of town, called Geismar Landstraße. Choose the first entrance on the left side (in front of the large wall) and go ahead.

Once you have reached the courtyard of the Historical Observatory, please go straight ahead and, at the end of the way, turn right. In the yellow building you will find the conference centre's seminar rooms and GGG's offices.

We kindly ask you not to come by car because we cannot offer many parking areas.
